INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Ignatz Obolhusky, 8 months, badly bitten by bulldog owned by F. Vellack in rear of home 965 Milwaukee ave. Will die.

Just to show there are no hard feelings, Taft men on Republican National Committee are going to give Roosevelt one-third of contested delegates.

But this action, it must be understood, is purely gratuitous, and besides will not affect the result.

Knights of Columbus and their families to number of 600 to leave for Washington tonight to attend unveiling of Columbus statue there.

11 judges of circuit court have endorsed Judge Pinckney's plea that another story be added to Juvenile Court building.

"This crowd does not represent the citizens at large."—Chief Justice Olson to jury trying union newsboys, and referring to audience in court.

Presumably Chief Justice Olson gained his information as to what sort of crowd represents the citizens at large by consorting with lawyers.

Nevertheless, even in those cases where the "strike sympathizers" or newsboys on trial pleaded guilty, those wrong-headed jurymen insisted on imposing the minimum fine of $1.

Just for the information of the plain people the Standard Oil gang has bought out Childs Restaurant Co.

Chief McWeeny going to appoint beauty squad of women to enforce ordinance against long hatpins.

Henry H. Belfield, 74, former director of Chicago Manual Training School, died suddenly at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Six baseball diamonds to be laid out in Winnemac Park, Foster av. and N. Robey st.

Harry New has asked Chief McWeeny to see to it that all persons caught scalping tickets to Republican National Convention be arrested.

Harry New.

Evidently, New is not aware that our police force is so busy carrying out orders of the Over-Mayor Andy Lawrence, that it has no time to prevent the breaking of laws.

"Talk of Roosevelt bolting is the purest bosh."—Senator Joseph M. Dixon, Montana, Roosevelt leader, who now is in our midst.

It's worse than bosh, Joseph; it's a great comfort to the Democrats.